

English

Reading

- Reading 'The Terrible Thing That Happened to Barnaby Rocket' by John Boyne
- Reading 'Dangerous Reality' by Malorie Blackman

Writing

- Narrative from a different perspective
- Diary Entry
- Email
- Newspaper report

Grammar

- Clauses
- Relative Clauses
- Colons
- Semi-colons
- Conjunctions
- Prepositions
- Subject and object
- Active and Passive Voice
- Tenses

History or Geography

Mayan Civilizations

- To be able to generate questions to structure research.
- To use historical evidence to draw conclusions.
- To understand the Mayan civilisations.
- To compare and contrast the experiences of Mayans with Roman Civilisations.

Art & Design or Design & Technology

Mayan Headdress

- To design and create a Mayan Headdress
- To plan a set of instructions.
- To evaluate and improve whilst working through the process.

Mathematics

Number

- Common factors
- Simplifying fractions
- Comparing and ordering fractions
- Equivalent fractions/decimals/percentages
- Problem Solving involving the above

Measurement

- Area of parallelograms and triangles
- Formulae for area and volume
- Converting between measurements
- Problem solving including measurements

Geometry

- Drawing 2-D shapes
- Recognising angles
- Calculating missing angles
- Compare and classify geometric shapes
- Recognise, describe and build 3D shapes

Statistics

-

Languages

French

Time

- Days of the weeks
- Months of the Year
- Telling time

Computing

Scratch

- Computer programming
- To design a computer game using coding.

Science

Evolution and Inheritance

- Living things change over time.
- Understanding how fossils contribute to our understanding of the world.
- Living things and their offspring.
- Understanding how animals and plants adapt to suite their environment.

Investigation Skills

- Drawing conclusions.
- Making observations and comparisons.
- Planning, predicting and carrying out a fair test.

SMSC & PSHE

- Chesterfield Values -SUCCESS
- SEAL- Relationships
- Circle time: address class issues that may arise.

Religious

- The Buddhist Community

Education

Physical

Education

Indoors – Gymnastics- Counter tension and Counter Balance

- Developing a sequence
- Incorporating apparatus into a performance

Outdoors – Invasions games - Hockey

- Learning the skills of attack and defence.
- Applying tactics to a game situation

Music

- Play pulse, rhythm and pitch games.
- Practise vocal warm ups
- Learn to sing A New Year Carol by Benjamin Britten.

Home

Learning

- Reading Comprehension
- Spelling
- Grammar
- Mathematics
- Timetables

<http://www.mayankids.com>

<http://mavas.mrdonn.org>