Message from Headteacher

Dear Parents,
This week year 4 started their Ukelele lessons – it is always amazing to see a group of children learning a new skill!
As the weather is becoming colder, please could I remind you to send your children in with coats, hats and gloves for playtime. I wish you all a safe and relaxing weekend.

Kelly Gradwell

Year 6 Ragged School Museum Trip

On Wednesday 23rd January, Zambezi Class and Thames Class went on a trip back in time to the Ragged School Museum. The children took part in two workshops based on Victorian life. Sahar from Zambezi class said, " I really enjoyed going back in time to 1886 and being a Victorian child in a ragged school classroom. The teacher was so strict that I was actually shaking when she checked the cleanliness of our hands".
