Message from Headteacher

Dear Parents,
 Welcome back – I hope that you all had a good half term break. It has been lovely to see so many happy, eager to learn faces in school this week. We have PC Doris who is our school police officer coming into school to do some assemblies and workshops with the children this term which we are all looking forward to.
 Please can I remind you that the children should not be playing on the playground equipment before or after school.
 Thanks, Kelly Gradwell

World Book Day

This week is National World Book Day on Thursday 7 March. Children will be taking part in a variety of different reading activities during the day and we would encourage them all to dress up as a character from a book. In addition, every child will receive a World Book Day token entitling them to collect a free book from a range of retailers.
